Financial Advisor

"Danie Human has been in the Financial Services Industry for more than a decade, in which time he has built a reputation for being a dedicated Advisor, who listens and takes a detailed approach to, not only, understanding his clients' immediate needs and wants but also to their long-term financial goals."

I always act with honesty and integrity and in the best interests of my clients. I work with exceptionally competent staff, who have more than the necessary skills, combined with the best service capabilities, which ensures that my clients receive only the best advice, guidance and service from my office. I have a deep regard for my clients' needs and wants and do my best to ensure that together we design a personalised solution that will best provide my client with a secure financial future.

"Danie understands that a Financial Planner plays an important role in the lives of their clients by assisting clients in planning responsibly for their financial future, and so providing peace of mind to clients and dependants alike. As a Financial Advisor, Danie feels strongly about adding value to his clients' lives by ensuring a safe, appropriate financial environment."

I want to see my clients become financially independent, one of my greatest passions is to see others prosper, and being able to walk this path with them, with a helping hand along the way, is one of my greatest privileges. I feel a great deal of success when I walk away from a client knowing that they fully understand the product that they have taken up and that they have taken responsibility for their financial future.

"Having seen the impact of the Discovery group of products and how thousands of clients have secured their financial future and achieved overall financial wellness, Danie is excited to help those who have yet to start securing their financial wellness, and to continue advising those who are already well on their way, to structuring their financial future." I strive to continuously improve my skills and knowledge in all aspects relating to the services and products that I advise on to ensure that I offer the very best financial solutions.
